Investment Objective:

The Fund's primary investment objective is limiting the impact of large equity market declines. The Fund's secondary investment objective is growth of capital.

Fees and Expenses of the Fund:

This table describes the fees and expenses that you may pay if you buy and hold shares of the Fund.

Annual Fund Operating Expenses

(expenses that you pay each year as a percentage of the value of your investment)

	Class N
Management Fees	0.75%
Distribution and/or Service (12b-1) Fees	None
Other Expenses	0.43%
Shareholder Servicing Expenses	0.25%
Remaining Other Expenses	0.18%
Acquired Fund Fees and Expenses (Underlying Funds) <sup>(1)</sup>	0.21%
Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses	1.39%

Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses After Fee Waiver	1.36%

(1) This number represents the combined total fees and operating expenses of the Underlying Funds owned by the Fund. Since this number does not represent a direct operating expense of the Fund, the operating expenses set forth in the Fund's financial highlights do not include this figure.

(2) The fees shown above take into account CLS's advisory fee waiver agreement to limit total operating expenses at least through August 31, 2019, so that direct expenses (not including expenses relating to dividends on short sales, interest expense, indirect fees and expenses of Underlying Funds and extraordinary or non-recurring expenses) do not exceed 1.25% of average daily net assets. Any waiver may be recouped by CLS from the Fund within three years of when the amounts were waived to the extent that expenses do not exceed the expense limitation in place at the time of waiver. Only the Fund's Board of Trustees may elect to terminate the waiver agreement.

Example: This Example is intended to help you compare the cost of investing in the Fund with the cost of investing in other mutual funds. The Example assumes that you invest $10,000 in the Fund for the time periods indicated and then redeem all of your shares at the end of those periods. The Example also assumes that your investment has a 5% return each year and that the Fund's operating expenses remain the same. Although your actual costs may be higher or lower, based upon these assumptions your costs would be:

Year	Class N
1	$138
3	$437
5	$758
10	$1,666

Portfolio Turnover: The Fund pays transaction costs, such as commissions, when it buys and sells securities (or "turns over" its portfolio). A higher portfolio turnover rate may indicate higher transaction costs and may result in higher taxes when Fund shares are held in a taxable account. These costs, which are not reflected in annual fund operating expenses or in the Example, affect the Fund's performance. During the recent fiscal year, the Fund's portfolio turnover rate was 172% of the average value of the portfolio.

Principal Investment Strategies of the Fund:

The Fund invests primarily in U.S. Treasury bills, individual equity securities, money market funds, exchange traded funds ("ETFs"), open-end mutual funds and closed-end funds that each invest primarily in equity securities (common stock and securities convertible into common stock). This group of ETFs and funds is referred to as "Underlying Funds." Equity securities, whether purchased directly or indirectly through Underlying Funds, are not restricted by issuer capitalization or country. The Fund's investment adviser, CLS Investments, LLC ("CLS"), seeks to achieve the Fund's investment objectives by using a variety of strategies. CLS will seek to "shelter" the Fund's portfolio from large equity market declines by investing a portion of the Fund's assets for protection in low and minimum volatility equity ETFs, money market funds, and U.S. Treasury bills. As with any mutual fund, there is no guarantee that the Fund will achieve its goal. CLS will use the following principal investment strategies:

- Using a tactical allocation model to determine what portion of the Fund's portfolio should be invested for growth of capital and what portion of the Fund's portfolio should be sheltered by investing for protection.
- Investing the protection portion of the Fund's portfolio in low and minimum volatility equity ETFs, money market funds, and U.S. Treasury bills in order to reduce the impact of large equity market declines.
- Investing the growth of capital portion of the Fund's portfolio in (i) Underlying Funds that seek capital growth or appreciation by investing primarily in common stock or securities convertible into or exchangeable for common stock (such as convertible preferred stock, convertible debentures or warrants), including the stock of foreign issuers, or (ii) individual securities that may provide capital appreciation. CLS actively manages the growth of capital portion of the Fund's portfolio by increasing or decreasing the Fund's investment in particular equity asset classes, sectors, regions and countries, or in a particular security, based on its assessment of the opportunities using fundamental and technical analysis.

Allocation of Fund assets between growth of capital and protection is influenced by the current market prices of the Fund's investments. As prices decline, the Fund is more likely to invest in assets for protection. Likewise, as prices increase, the Fund is more likely to invest in assets for growth of capital.

CLS projects that the Fund's risk will be similar to a globally diversified equity portfolio composed of 80% U.S. stocks and 20% international stocks. CLS may engage in frequent buying and selling of securities to achieve the Fund's objectives.

Principal Risks of the Fund:

Many factors affect the Fund's performance. The Fund's share price changes daily based on changes in market conditions in response to economic, political and financial developments. The direction and extent of those price changes will be affected by the financial condition, industry and economic sector, and geographic location of the securities in which the Fund invests. The Fund is not federally insured or guaranteed by any government agency. YOU MAY LOSE MONEY BY INVESTING IN THE FUND.

Foreign Securities Risk: Foreign securities may be riskier than U.S. investments because of factors such as unstable international political and economic conditions, currency fluctuations, foreign controls on investment and currency exchange, withholding taxes, a lack of adequate company information, less liquid and more volatile markets, and a lack of governmental regulation. Foreign companies generally are not subject to accounting, auditing, and financial reporting standards comparable to those applicable to U.S. companies. Transaction costs and costs associated with custody services are generally higher for foreign securities than they are for U.S. securities. Additionally, the risks of investing in foreign securities are greater for investments in emerging markets. Emerging-market countries may experience higher inflation, interest rates, and unemployment, as well as greater social, economic, regulatory, and political uncertainties than more developed countries.

Government Securities Risk: The Fund invests in securities issued or guaranteed by the U.S. government or its agencies and instrumentalities (such as securities issued by the Government National Mortgage Association (Ginnie Mae), the Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae), or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (Freddie Mac)). U.S. government securities are subject to market risk, interest rate risk and credit risk. Securities, such as those issued or guaranteed by Ginnie Mae or the U.S. Treasury, that are backed by the full faith and credit of the United States are guaranteed only as to the timely payment of interest and principal when held to maturity and the market prices for such securities will fluctuate. Notwithstanding that these securities are backed by the full faith and credit of the United States, circumstances could arise that would prevent the payment of interest or principal. This would result in losses to the Fund. Securities issued or guaranteed by U.S. government-related organizations, such as Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, are not backed by the full faith and credit of the U.S. government and no assurance can be given that the U.S. government will provide financial support. Therefore, U.S. government-related organizations may not have the funds to meet their payment obligations in the future. US government securities include zero-coupon securities, which tend to be subject to greater market risk than interest-paying securities of similar maturities.

Management Risk: The ability of the Fund to meet its investment objective is directly related to the allocation of the Fund’s assets. The risk level of the Fund will vary significantly with moves between the growth of capital and protection portfolios. CLS may allocate the Fund’s investments so as to under-emphasize or over-emphasize investments under the wrong market conditions, in which case the Fund’s value may be adversely affected. The risk level of the Fund will vary significantly with moves between the growth and protection portfolios. Additionally, in seeking lower volatility ETFs, CLS’ selection may prove to be incorrect and the ETFs selected may not provide the lower volatility sought.

Market Risk: Investments in securities in general are subject to market risks that may cause their prices to fluctuate over time. The Fund’s investments may decline in value due to factors affecting securities markets generally, or particular countries, segments, economic sectors, industries or companies within those markets. The value of a security may decline due to general economic and market conditions that are not specifically related to a particular issuer.

Portfolio Turnover Risk: Portfolio turnover refers to the rate at which the securities held by the Fund are replaced. The higher the rate, the higher the transactional and brokerage costs associated with the turnover which may reduce the Fund’s return, unless the securities traded can be bought and sold without corresponding commission costs.

Smaller and Medium Issuer Risk: Investments in Underlying Funds that own small and medium capitalization companies and direct investments in individual small and medium capitalization companies may be more vulnerable than larger, more established organizations to adverse business or economic developments.

Underlying Funds Risk: You will indirectly pay fees and expenses charged by the Underlying Funds in addition to the Fund’s direct fees and expenses. As a result, the cost of investing in the Fund will be higher than the cost of investing directly in Underlying Fund shares and may be higher than other mutual funds that invest directly in stocks and bonds. Each Underlying Fund is subject to specific risks, depending on the nature of the Underlying Fund. These risks could include sector risk (increased risk from a focus on one or more sector of the market), as well as risks associated with fixed income securities, real estate investments, and commodities.

(1) After-tax returns are based on the highest historical individual federal marginal income tax rates, and do not reflect the impact of state and local taxes; actual after-tax returns depend on an individual investor's tax situation and may differ from those shown. If you own shares of the Fund in a tax-deferred account, such as an individual retirement account or a 401(k) plan, this information is not applicable to your investment. A higher after-tax return results when a capital loss occurs upon redemption and translates into an assumed tax deduction that benefits the shareholder.
