Dear Shareholders:

This Semi-annual report for the Hundredfold Select Alternative Fund (HFSAX Investor Class and SFHYX Service Class) covers the period from September 1, 2017 – February 28, 2018.

The Hundredfold Select Alternative Fund Investor Class Shares produced a return of +3.57%, for the period, while the Bloomberg Barclays Aggregate Bond Index was down -2.18%, and the Standard & Poor's 500 Total Return Index increased by +10.84% for the six months; the Hundredfold Select Alternative Fund Service Class Shares reported a return of +3.15% for the period.

The Fund is a tactically managed alternative fund that uses many investment tools and strategies. Its objective is to provide steady returns in many different market environments – inflationary, deflationary, in economic expansion, or recession. By combining non-correlating investment strategies which may include high yield bonds, stocks, commodities, futures contracts, long or short positions, currencies and occasional leverage, the Fund seeks to limit risk and can go where the markets are outperforming.

This flexibility was needed for the period under review. Favorable economic data and corporate earnings supported growth-related equities and fixed income in September, while traditionally defensive fixed income sectors had less advantageous trends. Equities pushed higher in October, led by technology. High yield bonds continued to build on major uptrends but lost momentum in the latter part of the month as spreads tightened to around multi-year extremes. The jagged rebound in the US Dollar beginning in September gave a tailwind to some commodities and a headwind to precious metals that resulted in the Sub-advisor making multiple tactical trades in the Fund. In November, although bullish undertones continued in the stock and bond markets, equity markets had a brief shake-out early in the month, and growth-oriented fixed income sectors broke away from their steady uptrends that had been in place since the previous summer. The Sub-advisor reduced investments, primarily in high yield, due to tight yield spreads and other technical factors, and engaged in some tactical trading in the US Dollar, gold and crude oil.

After an overly optimistic start in the month of January, the markets corrected in a volatile decline. The combination of euphoric buying, overvalued stock prices, and the realization that the Federal Reserve will be raising interest rates several times this year to fight inflation, contributed to a severe sell off and extreme market volatility. In nine days in February, the Dow Jones Average dropped 10%, one of the fastest corrections in history. This followed a period of over 500 as without a 10% correction. The Fund ended the period with very little high yield bond exposure - 10.07% compared with 40% at the outset of the period; a reduced alternative or other bond investment of 50.82% versus 136% at the beginning of September 2017, and an equity position of 25.49% compared with an equity position of 15% at the outset of the semi-annual period.

The Fund's portfolio is very actively managed. The Sub-advisor has been managing risk for over 30 years, and has seen numerous market conditions. His primary concern is providing superior risk-adjusted returns for shareholders.

We thank you for your investment in the Hundredfold Select Fund.

Hundredfold Select Alternative Fund
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Unaudited)

February 28, 2018

1. ORGANIZATION

The Hundredfold Select Alternative Fund (the "Fund") is a non-diversified series of Northern Lights Fund Trust II, a Delaware statutory trust (the "Trust") organized on August 26, 2010 and registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"), as an open-end management investment company. The Fund currently offers Service Class Shares and Investor Class Shares with commencement of operations on September 1, 2004 and October 24, 2012, respectively.

Each class represents an interest in the same assets of the respective Fund and classes are identical except for differences in their ongoing service and distribution charges. All classes of shares have equal voting privileges except that each class has exclusive voting rights with respect to its service and/or distribution plans. The Fund's income, expenses (other than class specific distribution and shareholding servicing fees) and realized and unrealized gains and losses are allocated proportionately each day based upon the relative net assets of each class.

The Fund seeks a moderate total rate of return (income plus capital appreciation) on an annual basis, by investing primarily in any combination of equity and fixed-income securities based on market conditions, trends and expectations.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Fund in preparation of its financial statements. The policies are in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America ("GAAP"). The Fund follows the specialized accounting and reporting requirements under GAAP that are applicable to investment companies. The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increase and decrease in net assets from operations during the fiscal year. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The Fund is an investment company and accordingly follows the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standard Codification Topic 946 "Financial Services – Investment Companies" including FASB Accounting Standard Update ASU 2013-08.

a) Investment Valuation – Securities listed on an exchange are valued at the last reported sale price at the close of the regular trading session of the exchange on the business day the value is being determined, or in the case of securities listed on NASDAQ at the NASDAQ Official Closing Price ("NOCP"). If the NOCP is not available, such securities shall be valued at the mean price on the day of valuation, or if there has been no sale on such day, at the mean between the current bid and ask prices. Financial futures, which are traded on an exchange, are valued at the settlement price determined by the exchange. Investments in open-end investment companies are valued at net asset value. Total return swaps on exchange-listed securities shall be valued at the last quoted sales price or, in the absence of a sale, at the mean between the current bid and ask prices. Exchange listed swaps shall be valued at the last quoted sales price or, in the absence of a sale, at the mean between the current bid and ask prices. Credit default swaps are valued by a pricing agent covering the specific type of swap. Certain credit default swaps ("CDS") and credit indices are valued independently by Markit; or if no valuation is available from a pricing agent, at the price received from the broker-dealer/counterparty that issued the swap. Short-term debt obligations having 60 days or less remaining until maturity, at the time of purchase, may be valued at amortized cost.

The Fund may hold securities, such as private investments, interests in commodity pools, other non-traded securities or temporarily illiquid securities, for which market quotations are not readily available or are determined to be unreliable. These securities will be valued using the "fair value" procedures approved by the Trust's Board of Trustees (the "Board"). The Board has delegated execution of these procedures to a fair value team composed of one or more representatives from each of the (i) Trust, (ii) administrator, and (iii) advisor and/or sub-advisor. The team may also enlist third party consultants such as a valuation specialist at a public accounting firm, valuation consultant or financial officer of a security issuer on an as-needed basis to assist in determining a security-specific fair value. The Board has also engaged a third party valuation firm to attend valuation meetings held by the Trust, review minutes of such meetings and report to the Board on a quarterly basis. The Board reviews and ratifies the execution of this process and the resultant fair value prices at least quarterly to assure the process produces reliable results.

b) Fair Valuation Process – As noted above, the fair value team is composed of one or more representatives from each of the (i) Trust, (ii) administrator, (iii) advisor and/or sub-advisor. The applicable investments are valued collectively via inputs from each of these groups. For example, fair value determinations are required for the following securities: (i) securities for which market quotations are insufficient or not readily available on a particular business day (including securities for which there is a short and temporary lapse in the provision of a price by the regular pricing source), (ii) securities for which, in the judgment of the advisor and/or sub-advisor, the prices or values available do not represent the fair value of the instrument. Factors which may cause the advisor and/or sub advisor to make such a judgment include, but are not limited to, the following: only a bid price or an asked price is available; the spread between bid and asked prices is substantial; the frequency of sales; the thinness of the market; the size of reported trades; and actions of the securities markets, such as the suspension or limitation of trading; (iii) securities determined to be illiquid; (iv) securities with respect to which an event that will affect the value thereof has occurred (a "significant event") since the closing prices were established on the principal exchange on which they are traded, but prior to a Fund's calculation of its net asset value. Specifically, interests in commodity pools or managed futures pools are valued on a daily basis by reference to the closing market prices of each futures contract or other asset held by a pool, as adjusted for pool expenses. Restricted or illiquid securities, such as private investments or non-traded securities are valued via inputs from the advisor based upon the current bid for the security from two or more independent dealers or other parties reasonably familiar with the facts and circumstances of the security (who should take into consideration all relevant factors as may be appropriate under the circumstances). If the advisor and/or sub-advisor is unable to obtain a current bid from such independent dealers or other independent parties, the fair value team shall determine the fair value of such security using the following factors: (i) the type of security; (ii) the cost at date of purchase; (iii) the size and nature of the Fund's holdings; (iv) the discount from market value of unrestricted securities of the same class at the time of purchase and subsequent thereto; (v) information as to any transactions or offers with respect to the security; (vi) the nature and duration of restrictions on disposition of the security and the existence of any registration rights; (vii) how the yield of the security compares to similar securities of companies of similar or equal creditworthiness; (viii) the level of recent trades of similar or comparable securities; (ix) the liquidity characteristics of the security; (x) current market conditions; and (xi) the market value of any securities into which the security is convertible or exchangeable.

Valuation of Fund of Funds - The Fund may invest in portfolios of open-end or closed-end investment companies (the "Underlying Funds"). The Underlying Funds value securities in their portfolios for which market quotations are readily available at their market values (generally the last reported sale price) and all other securities and assets at their fair value to the methods established by the board of directors of the Underlying Funds.

Open-ended investment companies are valued at their respective net asset values as reported by such investment companies. The shares of many closed-end investment companies, after their initial public offering, frequently trade at a price per share, which is different than the net asset value per share. The difference represents a market premium or market discount of such shares. There can be no assurances that the market discount or market premium on shares of any closed-end investment company purchased by each Fund will not change.

The Fund utilizes various methods to measure the fair value of all of their investments on a recurring basis. GAAP establishes a hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to valuation methods. The three levels of input are:

Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities that each Fund has the ability to access.

Level 2 – Observable inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. These inputs may include quoted prices for the identical instrument in an inactive market, prices for similar instruments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, yield curves, default rates and similar data.

Level 3 – Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability, to the extent relevant observable inputs are not available; representing the Fund's own assumptions about the assumptions a market participant would use in valuing the asset or liability, and would be based on the best information available.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of security, whether the security is new and not yet established in the marketplace, the liquidity of markets, and other characteristics particular to the security. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised in determining fair value is greatest for instruments categorized in Level 3.

The inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls in its entirety, is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities. The following tables summarize the inputs used as of February 28, 2018 for the Fund's assets and liabilities measured at fair value:

c) Swap Contracts – The Fund is subject to equity price risk, interest rate risk, credit risk and counterparty risk in the normal course of pursuing its investment objectives. The Fund may enter into various swap transactions, such as total return swaps and portfolio swaps for investment purposes or to manage interest rate, equity, or credit risk. These would be two-party contracts entered into primarily to exchange the returns (or differentials in rates of returns) earned or realized on particular pre-determined investments or instruments.

Standard equity swap contracts are between two parties that agree to exchange the returns (or differentials in rates of return) earned or realized on particular predetermined investments or instruments. The gross amount to be exchanged is calculated with respect to a "notional amount" (i.e. the return on or increase in value of a particular dollar amount invested in a "basket" of securities representing a particular index or industry sector). Most equity swap agreements entered into by the Fund calculate the obligations of the parties on a "net basis". Consequently, a Fund's current obligations under a swap agreement generally will be equal to the net amount to be paid or received under the agreement based on the relative value of the positions held by each party. The Fund's obligations are accrued daily (offset by any amounts owed to the Fund).

In a "long" equity swap agreement, the counterparty will generally agree to pay the Fund the amount, if any, by which the notional amount of the swap contract would have increased in value if the Fund has been invested in the particular securities, plus dividends that would have been received on those securities. The Fund will agree to pay the counterparty a floating rate of interest on the notional amount of the swap contract plus the amount, if any, by which the notional amount would have decreased in value had it been invested in such securities plus, in certain instances, commissions or trading spreads on the notional amounts. Thus, the return on the swap contract should be the gain or loss on the notional amount plus dividends on the securities less the interest paid by the Fund on the notional amount. However, in certain instances, market factors such as the interest rate environment and the demand to borrow the securities underlying the swap agreement can cause a scenario in which the counterparty will pay the Fund interest. Payments may be made at the conclusion of the contract or periodically during its term. Swap contracts do not include the delivery of securities. The net amount of the excess, if any, of the Fund's obligations over its entitlement with respect to each swap is accrued on a daily basis and an amount of cash or liquid assets, having an aggregate net asset value at least equal to such accrued excess is maintained in a segregated account. Until a swap contract is settled in cash, the gain or loss on the notional amount plus dividends on the securities less the interest paid by the Fund on the notional amount are recorded as "unrealized gains or losses on swaps" and when cash is exchanged, the gain or loss is recorded as "realized gains or losses on swaps".

The Fund may enter into swap contracts that provide the opposite return of the particular benchmark or security ("short" the index or security). The operations are similar to that of the swaps disclosed above except that the counterparty pays interest to the Fund on the notional amount outstanding and the dividends on the underlying securities reduce the return of the swap. However, in certain instances, market factors such as the interest rate environment and the demand to borrow the securities underlying the swap agreement can cause a scenario in which the Fund pays the counterparty interest. These amounts are netted with any unrealized appreciation or depreciation to determine the value of the swap. The Fund will typically enter into equity swap agreements in instances where the Advisor believes that it may be more cost effective or practical than buying a security or the securities represented by a particular index.

The Fund may enter into credit default swaps (“CDS”). CDS are typically two-party (bilateral) financial contracts that transfer credit exposure between the two parties. One party to a CDS (referred to as the credit protection “buyer”) receives credit protection or sheds credit risk, whereas the other party to a CDS (referred to as the credit protection “seller”) is selling credit protection or taking on credit risk. The seller typically receives pre-determined periodic payments from the other party. These payments are in consideration for agreeing to make compensating specific payments to the buyer should a negative credit event occur, such as (1) bankruptcy or (2) failure to pay interest or principal on a reference debt instrument, with respect to a specified issuer or one of the reference issuers in a CDS portfolio. In general, CDS may be used by the Fund to obtain credit risk exposure similar to that of a direct investment in high yield bonds.

The Fund may enter into Interest Rate Swaps. Interest rate swaps involve the exchange of commitments to pay and receive interest based on a notional principal amount. The Funds may elect to pay a fixed rate and receive a floating rate, or receive a fixed rate and pay a floating rate on a notional principal amount.

The amounts to be exchanged or “swapped” between parties are calculated with respect to the notional amount. Changes in the value of swap agreements are recognized as unrealized gains or losses in the Statement of Operations by “marking to market” on a daily basis to reflect the value of the swap agreement at the end of each trading day. Payments received or paid at the beginning of the agreement are reflected as such on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities and may be referred to as upfront payments. A liquidation payment received or made at the termination of the swap agreement is recorded as a realized gain or loss on the Statement of Operations. The maximum pay-outs for these contracts are limited to the notional amount of each swap. CDS may involve greater risks than if each Fund had invested in the referenced obligation directly and are subject to general market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and credit risk.

The Fund collateralizes swap agreements with cash and certain securities, if indicated on the Schedule of Investments. Such collateral is held for the benefit of the counterparty in a segregated account at the Custodian to protect the counterparty against non-payment by the Fund. The Fund does not net collateral. In the event of a default by the counterparty, the Fund will seek return of this collateral and may incur certain costs exercising their rights with respect to the collateral. Amounts expected to be owed to the Fund are regularly collateralized either directly with the Fund or in a segregated account at the Custodian.

A Fund bears the risk of loss of the amount expected to be received under a swap agreement in the event of the default or bankruptcy of a swap agreement counterparty to the extent that posted collateral is insufficient. A Fund will enter into swap agreements only with large, well-capitalized and established financial institutions. The creditworthiness of each of the firms that is counterparty to a swap agreement is monitored by the Advisor. The financial statements of these counterparties are available by accessing the SEC’s website, at www.sec.gov.

d) Stock Index Futures Contracts and Options on Futures Contracts – The Fund may purchase and sell stock index futures contracts and options on such futures contracts. A Fund may use futures contracts to gain exposure to, or hedge against changes in the value of equities, interest rates or foreign currencies. Upon entering into a contract, the Fund deposits and maintains as collateral such initial margin as required by the exchange on which the transaction is effected. Pursuant to the contract, the Fund agrees to receive from or pay to the broker an amount of cash equal to the daily fluctuation in value of the contract. Such receipts or payments are known as “variation margin” and are recorded by the Fund as unrealized gains and losses. When the contract is closed, the Fund records a realized gain or loss equal to the difference between the value of the contract at the time it was opened and the value at the time it was closed. As collateral for futures contracts, the Fund is required under the 1940 Act to maintain assets consisting of cash, cash equivalents or liquid securities. This collateral is required to be adjusted daily to reflect the market value of the purchase obligation for long futures contracts or the market value of the instrument underlying the contract, but not less than the market price at which the futures contract was established, for short futures contracts.

e) Risks of Options, Futures Contracts, Options on Futures Contracts and Short Positions – The risks inherent in the use of options, futures contracts, options on futures contracts and short positions include 1) adverse changes in the value of such instruments; 2) imperfect correlation between the price of options and futures contracts and options thereon and movements in the price of the underlying securities, index or futures contracts; 3) the possible absence of a liquid secondary market for any particular instrument at any time; 4) the possible need to defer closing out certain positions to avoid adverse tax consequences; and 5) the possible nonperformance by the counterparty under the terms of the contract. The Fund designates all cash, cash equivalents and liquid securities as collateral for futures contracts and options on futures contracts.

f) Exchange Traded Funds – The Fund may invest in exchange traded funds (“ETFs”). ETFs are a type of index fund bought and sold on a securities exchange. An ETF trades like common stock and represents a fixed portfolio of securities designed to track the performance and dividend yield of a particular domestic or foreign market index. A Fund may purchase an ETF to temporarily gain exposure to a portion of the U.S. or a foreign market while awaiting purchase of underlying securities. The risks of owning an ETF generally reflect the risks of owning the underlying securities they are designed to track, although the lack of liquidity on an ETF could result in it being more volatile. Additionally, ETFs have fees and expenses that reduce their value.

g) Security Transactions and Related Income – Investment transactions are recorded on the trade date. The Fund determines the gain or loss realized from the investment transactions by comparing the identified cost, which is the same basis used for federal income tax purposes, with the net sales proceeds. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Interest income, including amortization of premium and discount, and dividends received from money market funds, is recognized on an accrual basis. Upfront payment on Credit Default Swaps are amortized over the life of the contract.

h) Expenses – Expenses of the Trust that are directly identifiable to a specific fund are charged to that fund. Expenses, which are not readily identifiable to a specific fund, are allocated in such a manner as deemed equitable (as determined by the Board), taking into consideration the nature and type of expense and the relative sizes of the funds in the Trust.

i) Federal Income Taxes – The Fund continues to comply with the requirements of Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code necessary to qualify as a regulated investment company and to make the requisite distributions of income and capital gains to its shareholders sufficient to relieve it from all or substantially all federal income tax. No provision for federal income taxes has been made.

The Fund recognizes the tax benefits of uncertain tax positions only where the position is “more likely than not” to be sustained assuming examination by tax authorities. Management has analyzed the Fund’s tax position, and has concluded that no liability for unrecognized tax benefits should be recorded related to uncertain tax positions filed for open tax years 2018 - 2017 or expected to be taken in the Fund’s 2018 tax return. The Fund identifies its major tax jurisdictions as U.S. Federal, and foreign jurisdictions where the Fund makes significant investments; however the Fund is not aware of any tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will change materially in the next twelve months.

j) Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders – Dividends from net investment income, if any, are declared and paid at least quarterly. Distributable net realized capital gains, if any, are declared and distributed annually. Dividends from net investment income on ex-date and distributions from net realized gains are determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from GAAP. These “book/tax” differences are considered either temporary (e.g., deferred losses, capital loss carry forwards) or permanent in nature. To the extent these differences are permanent in nature, such amounts are reclassified within the composition of net assets based on their federal tax-basis treatment; temporary differences do not require reclassification. Any such reclassifications will have no effect on net assets, results of operations, or net asset values per share of the Fund.

k) Indemnifications – The Trust indemnifies its officers and trustees for certain liabilities that may arise from the performance of their duties to the Trust. Additionally, in the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts that contain a variety of representations and warranties and which provide general indemnities. The Fund’s maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet occurred. However, based on experience, the risk of loss due to these warranties and indemnities appears to be remote.

4. OFFSETTING OF FINANCIAL ASSETS AND DERIVATIVE ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

The Fund's policy is to recognize a net asset or liability equal to the unrealized gain/ (loss) for futures and swaps contracts. During the six months ended February 28, 2018, the Fund is subject to a master netting arrangement for the swaps. The following table shows additional information regarding the offsetting of assets and liabilities at February 28, 2018.

Assets:	Gross Amounts of Recognized Assets	Gross Amounts Offset in the Statement of Assets & Liabilities	Net Amounts of Assets Presented in the Statement of Assets & Liabilities	Gross Amounts Not Offset in the Statement of Assets & Liabilities		Net Amount

6. DISTRIBUTIONS TO SHAREHOLDERS AND TAX COMPONENTS OF CAPITAL

The tax character of distributions paid during the following fiscal years was as follows:

There was $167,297 of ST capital loss carryforward used for the year ended August 31, 2017.

The difference between book basis and tax basis undistributed net investment income, accumulated net realized gain and unrealized appreciation from investments is primarily attributable to the mark-to-market on open futures and swap contracts and the tax deferral of losses on wash sales.

Permanent book and tax differences, primarily attributable to the book/tax basis treatment of swaps, resulted in reclassifications for the Fund for the year ended August 31, 2017 as follows:

	Paid in Capital	Undistributed Net Investment Income	Accumulated Net Realized Gain/(Loss) from Investments

EXPENSE EXAMPLE (Unaudited)

February 28, 2018

As a shareholder of a mutual fund, you incur two types of costs: (1) transaction costs, including reinvested dividends, or other distributions; redemption fees; and exchange fees; and (2) ongoing costs, including management fees; distribution and/or service fees; and other fund expenses. This example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in a fund and to compare costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds.

The example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held the entire period August 31, 2017 – February 28, 2018.

Actual Expenses

The first line of the table below provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. You may use the information below; together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number provided under the heading "Expenses Paid During Period" to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period.

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line of the table below provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on each Fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not each Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balances or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs, such as sales charges (loads), or redemption fees. Therefore, the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds. In addition, if these transactional costs were included, your costs would have been higher.

FACTORS CONSIDERED BY THE TRUSTEES IN APPROVAL OF THE RENEWAL OF INVESTMENT ADVISORY AND SUB-ADVISORY AGREEMENTS

At a regular meeting (the “Meeting”) of the Board of Trustees (the “Board”) of Northern Lights Fund Trust II (the “Trust”) held on July 25 and 26, 2017, the Board, including the disinterested Trustees (the “Independent Trustees”), considered the renewal of the Investment Advisory Agreement between the Trust, on behalf of the Hundredfold Select Alternative Fund (“Hundredfold Select Alternative”), a series of the Trust, and Advisors Preferred, LLC (“Advisors Preferred”) (“Advisors Preferred Advisory Agreement”). The Board further considered the renewal of the sub-advisory agreement between Advisors Preferred and Hundredfold Advisors, LLC (“Hundredfold Advisors”) with respect to Hundredfold Select Alternative (“Hundredfold Sub-Advisory Agreement”), (together, the “Hundredfold Advisory Agreements”).

Based on their evaluation of the information provided by Advisor’s Preferred and Hundredfold Advisor’s, in conjunction with Hundredfold Select Alternative’s other service providers, the Board, by a unanimous vote (including a separate vote of the Independent Trustees), approved the renewal of the Advisors Preferred Advisory Agreement and the Hundredfold Sub-Advisory Agreement with respect to Hundredfold Select Alternative.

In advance of the meeting, the Board requested and received materials to assist them in considering the Investment Advisory Agreement and the Sub-Advisory Agreement. The materials provided contained information with respect to the factors enumerated below, including the Advisors Preferred Advisory Agreement and the Hundredfold Sub-Advisory Agreement, a memorandum prepared by the Independent Trustees’ outside legal counsel discussing in detail the Trustees’ fiduciary obligations and the factors they should assess in considering the approval of each of the Hundredfold Advisory Agreements and comparative information relating to the advisory fees and other expenses of Hundredfold Select Alternative. The materials also included due diligence materials relating to Advisors Preferred and Hundredfold Advisors (including due diligence questionnaires completed by Advisors Preferred and Hundredfold Advisors, Advisors Preferred’s and Hundredfold Advisor’s Forms ADV, select financial information of Adviser Preferred, bibliographic information regarding Advisors Preferred’s and Hundredfold Advisor’s key management and investment advisory personnel, and comparative fee information relating to Hundredfold Select Alternative) and other pertinent information. At the Meeting, the Independent Trustees were advised by counsel that is experienced in Investment Company Act of 1940 matters and that is independent of fund management and met with such counsel separately from fund management.

The Board reviewed and discussed the written materials that were provided in advance of the Meeting and deliberated on the renewal of the Advisors Preferred Advisory Agreement with respect to Hundredfold Select Alternative. The Board relied upon the advice of independent legal counsel and their own business judgment in determining the material factors to be considered in evaluating the Advisors Preferred Advisory Agreement and the weight to be given to each such factor. The conclusions reached by the Board were based on a comprehensive evaluation of all of the information provided and were not the result of any one factor. Moreover, each Trustee may have afforded different weight to the various factors in reaching his conclusions with respect to the Advisors Preferred Advisory Agreement.

In considering the renewal of the Advisors Preferred Advisory Agreement with respect to Hundredfold Select Alternative, the Board reviewed and analyzed various factors that they determined were relevant, including the factors enumerated below.

Nature, Extent and Quality of Services. The Board reviewed materials provided by Advisors Preferred related to the renewal of the Advisors Preferred Advisory Agreement, including its ADV, a description of the manner in which investment decisions are executed and a review of the professional personnel performing services for Hundredfold Select Alternative, including the individuals that primarily monitor and execute investment decisions. The Board discussed the extent of Advisors Preferred’s trade execution capabilities, the quality of its compliance infrastructure and the steps taken to automate compliance processes and the experience of its fund management personnel. Additionally, the Board received satisfactory responses from the representatives of Advisors Preferred with respect to a series of important questions, including: whether it was involved in any lawsuits or pending regulatory actions; whether the management of other accounts would conflict with its management of Hundredfold Select Alternative; and whether there are procedures in place to adequately allocate trades among its respective clients. The Board reviewed the description provided on the practices for monitoring compliance with Hundredfold Select Alternative's investment limitations and oversight of Hundredfold Advisors. The Board then reviewed the capitalization of Advisors Preferred based on financial information provided by and representations made by a representative of Advisors Preferred and concluded that Advisors Preferred was sufficiently well-capitalized and that its parent had the ability to make additional contributions in order to meet its obligations to Hundredfold Select Alternative, if necessary. The Board concluded that Advisors Preferred had sufficient quality and depth of personnel, resources, investment methods and compliance policies and procedures essential to performing its duties under the Advisors Preferred Advisory Agreement and that the nature, overall quality and extent of the management and oversight services to be provided by Advisors Preferred to Hundredfold Select Alternative were satisfactory.

Performance. The Board discussed the reports prepared by Morningstar and reviewed the performance of Hundredfold Select Alternative as compared to its peer group, Morningstar category and benchmark for the one year, three year and since inception periods ended June 30, 2017, noting that Hundredfold Select Alternative outperformed its peer group and Morningstar categories but, underperformed its benchmark for the one year, three year and since inception periods. The Board concluded that past performance was acceptable and generally in line with its risk level.

Fees and Expenses. As to the costs of the services provided by Advisors Preferred, the Board reviewed and discussed Hundredfold Select Alternative's advisory fee and total operating expenses as compared to a peer group and its Morningstar category as presented in the Morningstar Report. The Board concluded that, based on Advisors Preferred's experience, expertise, and services provided to Hundredfold Select Alternative, the advisory fee charged by Advisors Preferred, although higher than average, was not unreasonable. The Board noted that Advisors Preferred is responsible for the payment of the sub-advisory fees payable to Hundredfold Advisors out of the advisory fee paid to Advisors Preferred by Hundredfold Select Alternative. The Board also considered the split of the advisory fee between Advisors Preferred and Hundredfold Advisors noting that Advisors Preferred is responsible for executing trades for the Fund and monitoring and overseeing Hundredfold Advisors, as sub-adviser to Hundredfold Select Alternative. In so doing, the Board noted that Advisors Preferred had committed substantial financial and other resources to the management of Hundredfold Select Alternative. Based on this analysis, the Board determined that the advisory fees were not unreasonable and the split of such fee between Advisors Preferred and Hundredfold Advisors was not unreasonable.

Profitability. The Board also considered the level of profits that could be expected to accrue to Advisors Preferred with respect to Hundredfold Select Alternative based on profitability reports and analyses and selected financial information provided by Advisors Preferred. After review and discussion, the Board concluded that, based on the services provided by Advisors Preferred, the fees paid to Hundredfold Advisors and the projected growth of Hundredfold Select Alternative, anticipated profits from the Adviser's relationship with Hundredfold Select Alternative were not excessive.

Economies of Scale. As to the extent to which Hundredfold Select Alternative will realize economies of scale as it grows, and whether the fee levels reflect these economies of scale for the benefit of investors, the Board discussed the current size of Hundredfold Select Alternative, Advisors Preferred's expectations for growth for Hundredfold Select Alternative, and concluded that any material economies of scale would not be achieved in the near term.

The Board then reviewed and discussed the written materials that were provided in advance of the Meeting and deliberated on the renewal of the Hundredfold Sub-Advisory Agreement. In addition to the materials described above, the Board reviewed: (i) the nature and quality of the investment advisory services to be provided by Hundredfold Advisors, including the experience and qualifications of the personnel providing such services; (ii) the investment strategies and style of investing of Hundredfold Advisors; (iii) the performance history of Hundredfold Advisors for Hundredfold Select Alternative; and (iv) Hundredfold Advisors financial condition, history of operations and ownership structure. In considering the renewal of the Hundredfold Sub-Advisory Agreement, the Board reviewed and analyzed various factors that they determined were relevant, including the factors enumerated below.

Nature, Extent and Quality of Services. As to the nature, quality and extent of the services provided by Hundredfold Advisors, the Board noted the experience of the portfolio management and research personnel of Hundredfold Advisors, including its experience in the investment field, education and industry credentials. The Board discussed the financial condition of Hundredfold Advisors and reviewed supporting materials. The Board reviewed the presentation materials prepared by Hundredfold Advisors describing its investment process. The Board discussed Hundredfold Advisors compliance structure. The Board concluded that Hundredfold Advisors has sufficient quality and depth of personnel, resources, investment methods and compliance policies and procedures essential to performing its duties under the Hundredfold Sub-Advisory Agreement and that the nature, overall quality and extent of investment management services to be provided to Hundredfold Select Alternative were satisfactory.

Performance. The Board, including the Independent Trustees, considered the performance of Hundredfold Select Alternative previously reviewed during its consideration of the Hundredfold Select Alternative's adviser, Advisors Preferred, and concluded that the performance obtained by Hundredfold Advisors for Hundredfold Select Alternative was satisfactory.

Fees and Expenses. As to the costs of the services provided by Hundredfold Advisors, the Board discussed the sub-advisory fee and considered that Hundredfold Advisors is paid by Advisors Preferred out of its advisory fee and not by Hundredfold Select Alternative. The Board also looked at the advisory fee split between Advisors Preferred and Hundredfold Advisors and concluded that the sub-advisory fee paid to Hundredfold Advisors was reasonable in light of the quality of the services to be performed by it. The Board also considered, based on statements made and information provided by Advisors Preferred and Hundredfold Advisors that the Hundredfold Sub-Advisory Agreement was negotiated at arm's-length between Advisors Preferred and Hundredfold Advisors.

Profitability. As to profitability, the Board discussed the sub-advisory fee paid, and expected to be paid to Hundredfold Advisors based on Hundredfold Select Alternative's current assets. The Board noted that Hundredfold Advisors' profitability was relatively high, however, it further noted that Hundredfold Advisors' expenses were extremely low because services and other overhead expenses were donated by Hundredfold Advisors personnel or Spectrum Financial, an affiliate of Hundredfold Advisors, and that Hundredfold Advisors donates substantially all of its revenues, including the sub-advisory fee, to a charitable organization, the Simply Distribute Foundation, which is also the parent company of Hundredfold Advisors. The Board noted the representation from a representative of Hundredfold Advisors that the sub-advisory fee received by Hundredfold Advisors is in fact for performing bona fide services to the Fund. The Board further noted that Hundredfold Advisors receives no compensation from Advisors Preferred, other than the sub-advisory fee earned pursuant to the Hundredfold Sub-Advisory Agreement, or from Hundredfold Select Alternative. The Board did note, however, that Spectrum Financial does receive a shareholder servicing fee from Hundredfold Select Alternative for its clients that are invested in the Fund. The Board further noted that the sub-advisory fee is paid by Advisors Preferred out of the advisory fee that it receives and not directly by Hundredfold Select Alternative. While the Board did not consider the costs of services provided by Hundredfold Advisors or its profitability to be significant factors, nonetheless, based on all these factors, the Board concluded that anticipated profits from Hundredfold Advisors' relationship with Hundredfold Select Alternative were not excessive.

Economies of Scale. The Board noted that the sub-advisory fee is not paid by Hundredfold Select Alternative, therefore the Board did not consider whether the sub-advisory fee should reflect any potential economies of scale that might be realized as the Fund's assets increase and rather determined the economies of scale would be evaluated as part of looking at the advisory fee paid to Advisors Preferred.

Conclusion: Independent counsel again assisted the Board throughout the agreement review process. The Board relied upon the advice of independent counsel, and their own business judgment in determining the material factors to be considered in evaluating the Hundredfold Advisory Agreements and the weight to be given to each such factor. Accordingly, having requested and received such information from Advisors Preferred and Hundredfold Advisors as the Board believed to be reasonably necessary to evaluate the terms of each of the Hundredfold Advisory Agreements, and as assisted by the advice of independent counsel, the Board, including a majority of the Independent Trustees, determined that, with respect to each Hundredfold Advisory Agreement separately, (a) the terms of the Hundredfold Advisory Agreement are reasonable; (b) the advisory fee (or sub-advisory fee) is reasonable; and (c) the Hundredfold Advisory Agreement is in the best interests of Hundredfold Select Alternative, and its shareholders. In considering the renewal of each of the Hundredfold Advisory Agreements, the Board did not identify any one factor as all important, but rather considered these factors collectively and determined that approval of the renewal of each Hundredfold Advisory Agreement was in the best interests of Hundredfold Select Alternative and its shareholders. Moreover, the Board noted that each Trustee may have afforded different weight to the various factors in reaching his conclusions with respect to each Hundredfold Advisory Agreement.
